PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

From the Blackmore Vale area we take you directly to Hyde Hall which is located in the Essex countryside, just outside Chelmsford.

This peaceful garden is the perfect destination for a day out in the East of England. With its wide open skies and far reaching views, it has an eclectic combination of different gardens, with some 145ha (360 acres) to explore. Since its inception in the mid-1950s, this vast garden has established from a handful of trees atop a windy hill to a jewel in the landscape that embraces superb ornamental horticulture, wild woodlands, majestic meadows and stylish gardens that embrace new ways of thinking about the world and the future.

Highlights include a beautiful hilltop garden with herbaceous borders, a rose garden and a fascinating Mediterranean inspired dry garden which showcases an array of drought tolerant plants that will thrive in an area of very low rainfall. There is also a superb Global Growth vegetable garden, displaying fruit and vegetables from around the world.
