TRIP ITINERARY

RHS BADMINTON FLOWER SHOW - GLOUCESTERSHIRE - Be part of horticultural history at the inaugural RHS Badminton Flower Show, where the producers of Chelsea Flower Show bring floral splendour to the spectacular Badminton Estate for the very first time.

You'll experience the final, glorious Sunday when every garden is at its peak. Hosted by the Duke and Duchess of Beaufort in their historic Gloucestershire parkland, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Award-Winning Show Gardens – Watch the prestigious RHS Medals and Awards winners revealed, then cast your own vote in the People's Choice Award.

The Archers 75th Anniversary Garden – Celebrity designer Jo Thompson brings BBC Radio 4's beloved Bridge Farm to life! Explore orchard fruit trees in wildflower meadows, the cheese-making area, wildlife pond, potting bench, and those iconic branded vegetable boxes. Seventy-five years of British radio history.

Artisan Gardens – Traditional country crafts and heritage skills showcased through beautiful gardens. Watch live demonstrations and gather inspiration for home projects.

The Floral Marquee – A spectacular display featuring 72 specialist growers and nurseries. Expert plantspeople share knowledge and help you choose plants to take home.

Meet the Stars – Celebrity gardeners including Adam Frost, Arit Anderson, Rachel de Thame, Ashley Edwards, and the Duchess of Beaufort share expert insights on the Talks Stage.

The Great Taste Market – Speciality cheeses, artisan bakes, homemade ingredients, and delicious treats. Or relax at the Lakeside Restaurant overlooking the water.

Community Gardens – The joyful Barrows and Barrels displays created by schools and communities under the theme "Live, Love, Local."

Throughout the day, RHS experts at the Advice Hub answer gardening questions, while the Plant Village offers wonderful plants to buy.
