TRIP ITINERARY

The RHS Cardiff Flower Show kicks off the horticultural calendar – and we are back to mark the start of spring on Saturday 18th April 2020.

In what is the RHS' first major flower show of the season, at RHS Cardiff expect stunning floral displays and gardens galore to give you lots of seasonal ideas for your outdoor space, whatever your space or budget, along with plenty of plants to buy and take home. There's also workshops, unique trade stands and lots of family activities.

From the Blackmore Vale we take you via the Severn River Crossing into Wales and directly to the beautiful City of Cardiff with a short comfort break en-route.

The Cardiff Flower Show 2020 takes place at Bute Park in Cardiff. Bute Park is one of the UK's largest urban parks, with 56 hectares (equivalent to 75 football pitches) of mature parkland right in the centre of Cardiff.
