THE HORSE-DRAWN BARGE...
"A LITTLE BIT OF HEAVEN IN DEVON"

Being one of the last remaining Horse-Drawn Barges in Great Britain, a trip on the “Tivertonian” offers a truly unique and memorable living heritage experience of a time before steam . . Expect a magical time on your trip getting to know the staff, heavy horses, barge and wildlife.

You will be taken along the beautiful Grand Western Canal Country Park and Local Nature Reserve, with it’s wildlife, the distant clip clop of the horses hooves and the gentle ripple of the water, The 2 1/2 hour journey is an experience that will take you back to times gone by of yesterday year, before even steam was invented. . . There will be a guide on the barge to enhance your trip with interesting tales from the days of horse-drawn barges and some interesting facts about the old Grand Western Canal. You will also enjoy a fish and chip supper as part of the trip on the barge.
